NEIGHBORHOODS: FOUNDATIONAL NEIGHBORHOOD

"Foundational neighborhoods shaped by Santa Fe's historic development patterns, cultural identity, diverse heritages, and long-standing community design."

Multi-generational living supported by incremental infill

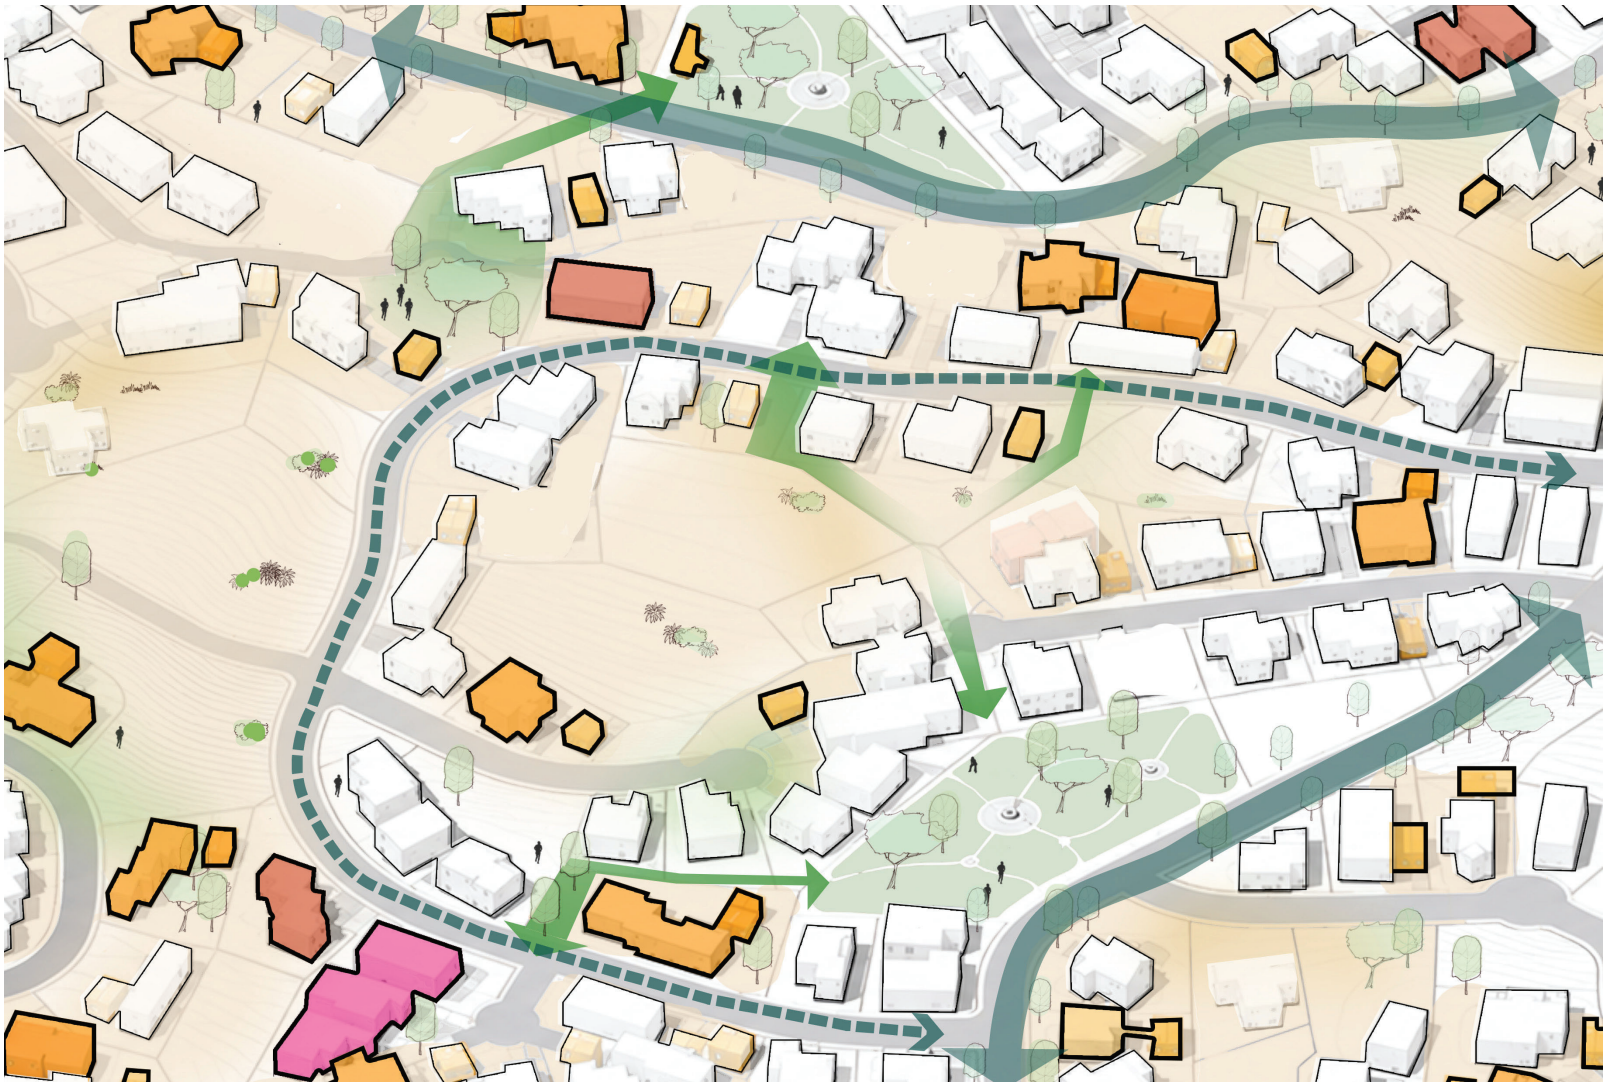

Spaces that shape daily neighborhood life

Streets that promote connectivity throughout the neighborhood

NEIGHBORHOODS: ESTABLISHED NEIGHBORHOOD

"Residential areas characterized by common housing types and neighborhood designs that house most Santa Fe residents and support daily life throughout the city."

Overall neighborhood connectivity for all ages

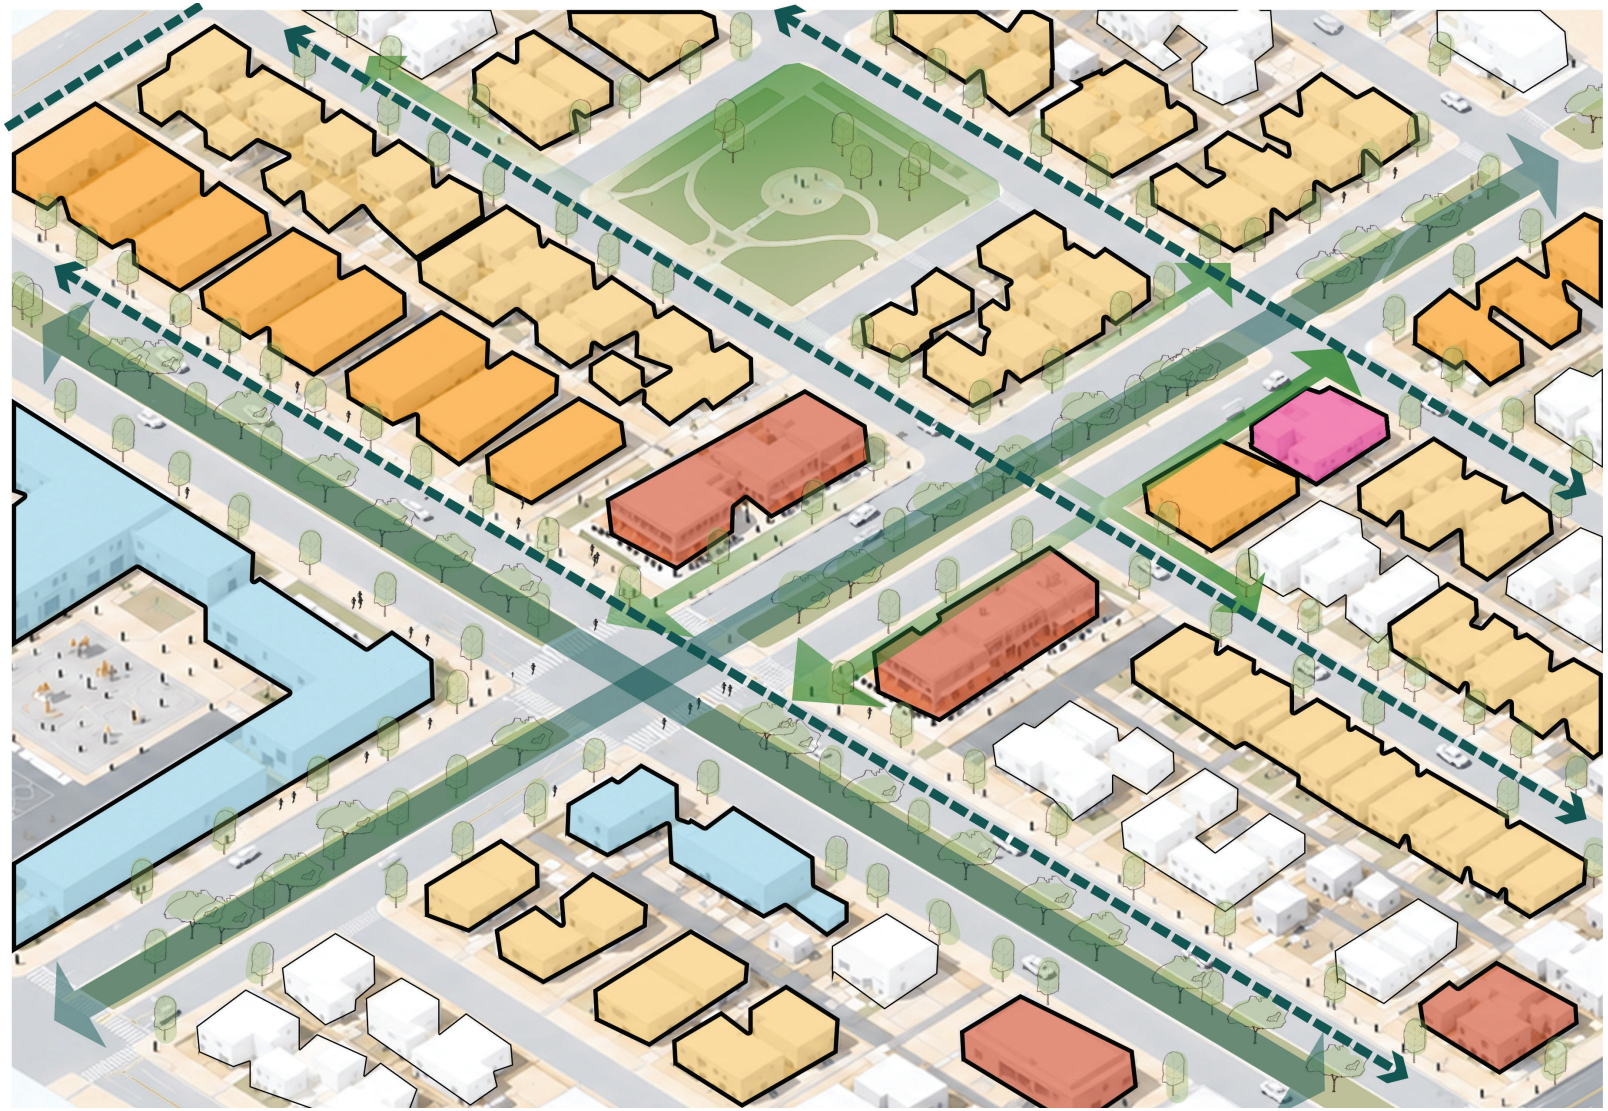

Homes adapt as families grow and change

Parks as anchors to neighborhood life

NEIGHBORHOODS: EMERGING NEIGHBORHOOD

"Newer or evolving residential areas that provide a range of housing choices and neighborhood amenities to meet changing needs and opportunities."

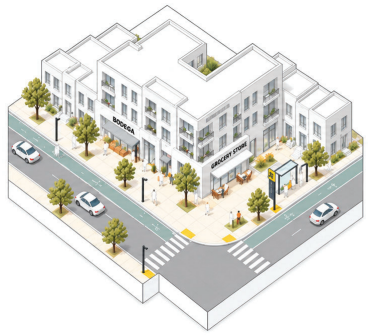

Community services like trails, schools to support future growth

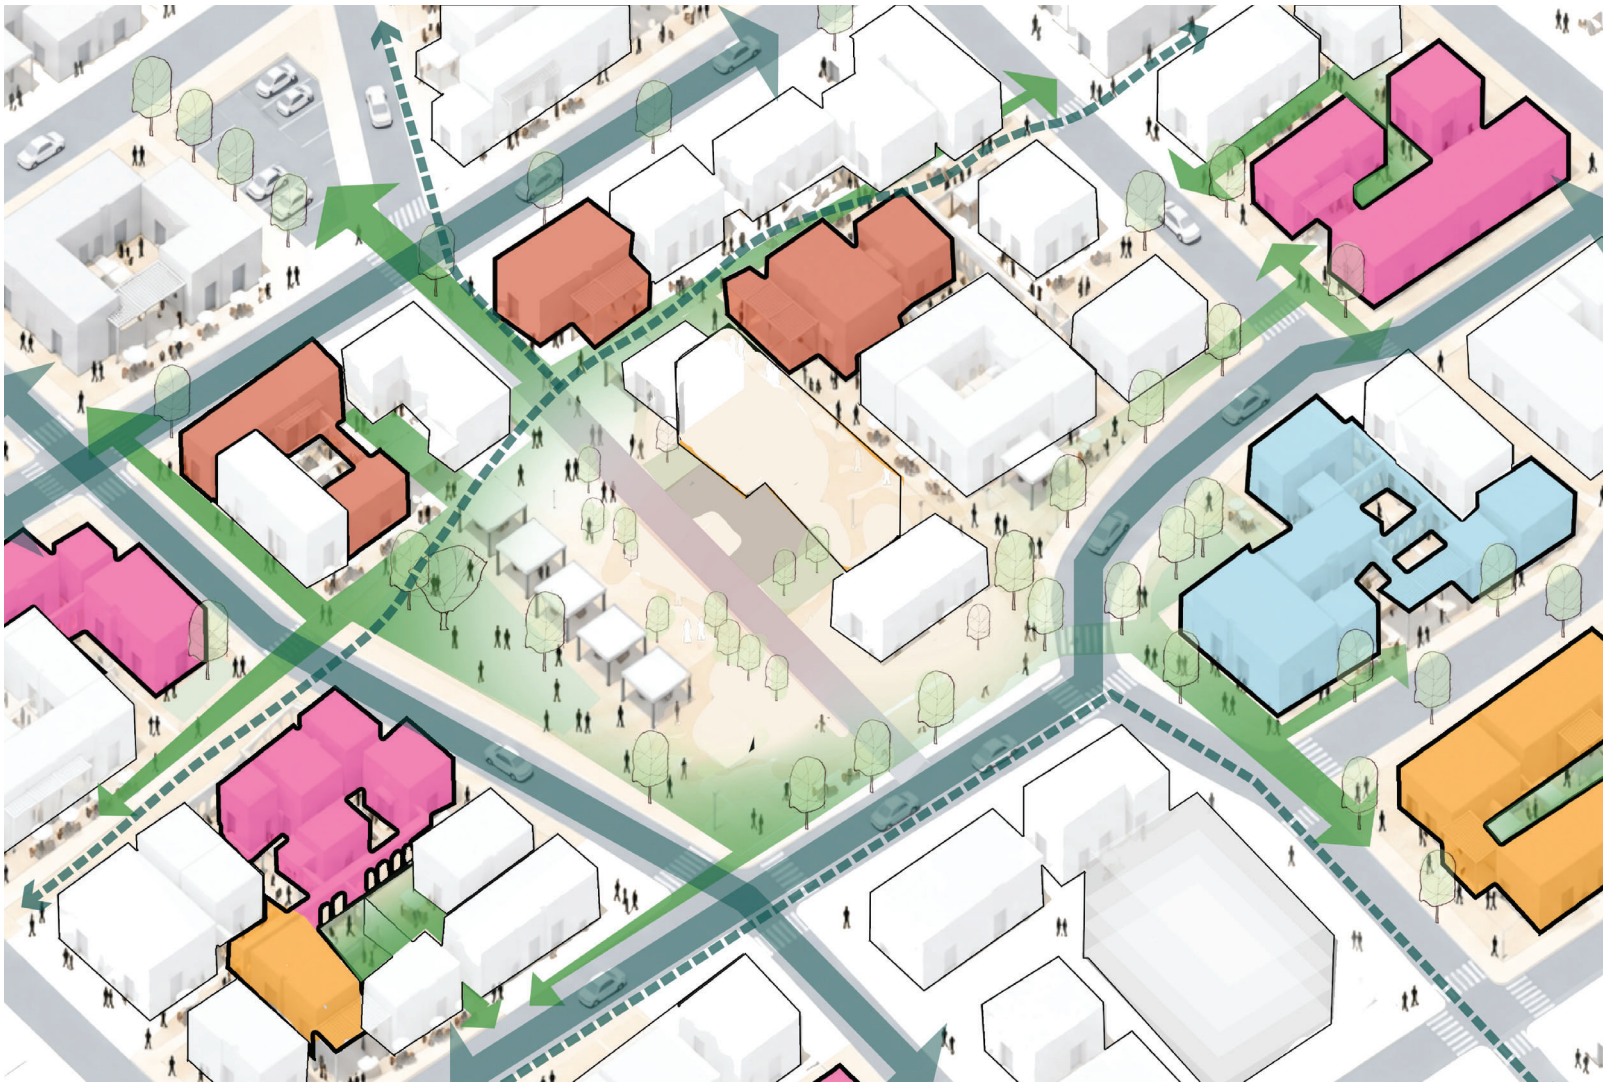

A range of housing choices welcomes everyone

Daily essentials within walking distance

DISTRICTS: HERITAGE AND TOURISM DISTRICT

"Areas where history, design, culture, civic life, hospitality, and visitor activity are concentrated and managed to sustain Santa Fe's tourism economy and distinctive character."

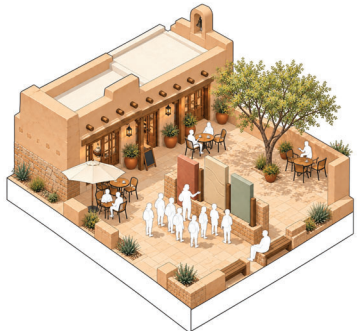

Living and working in the core

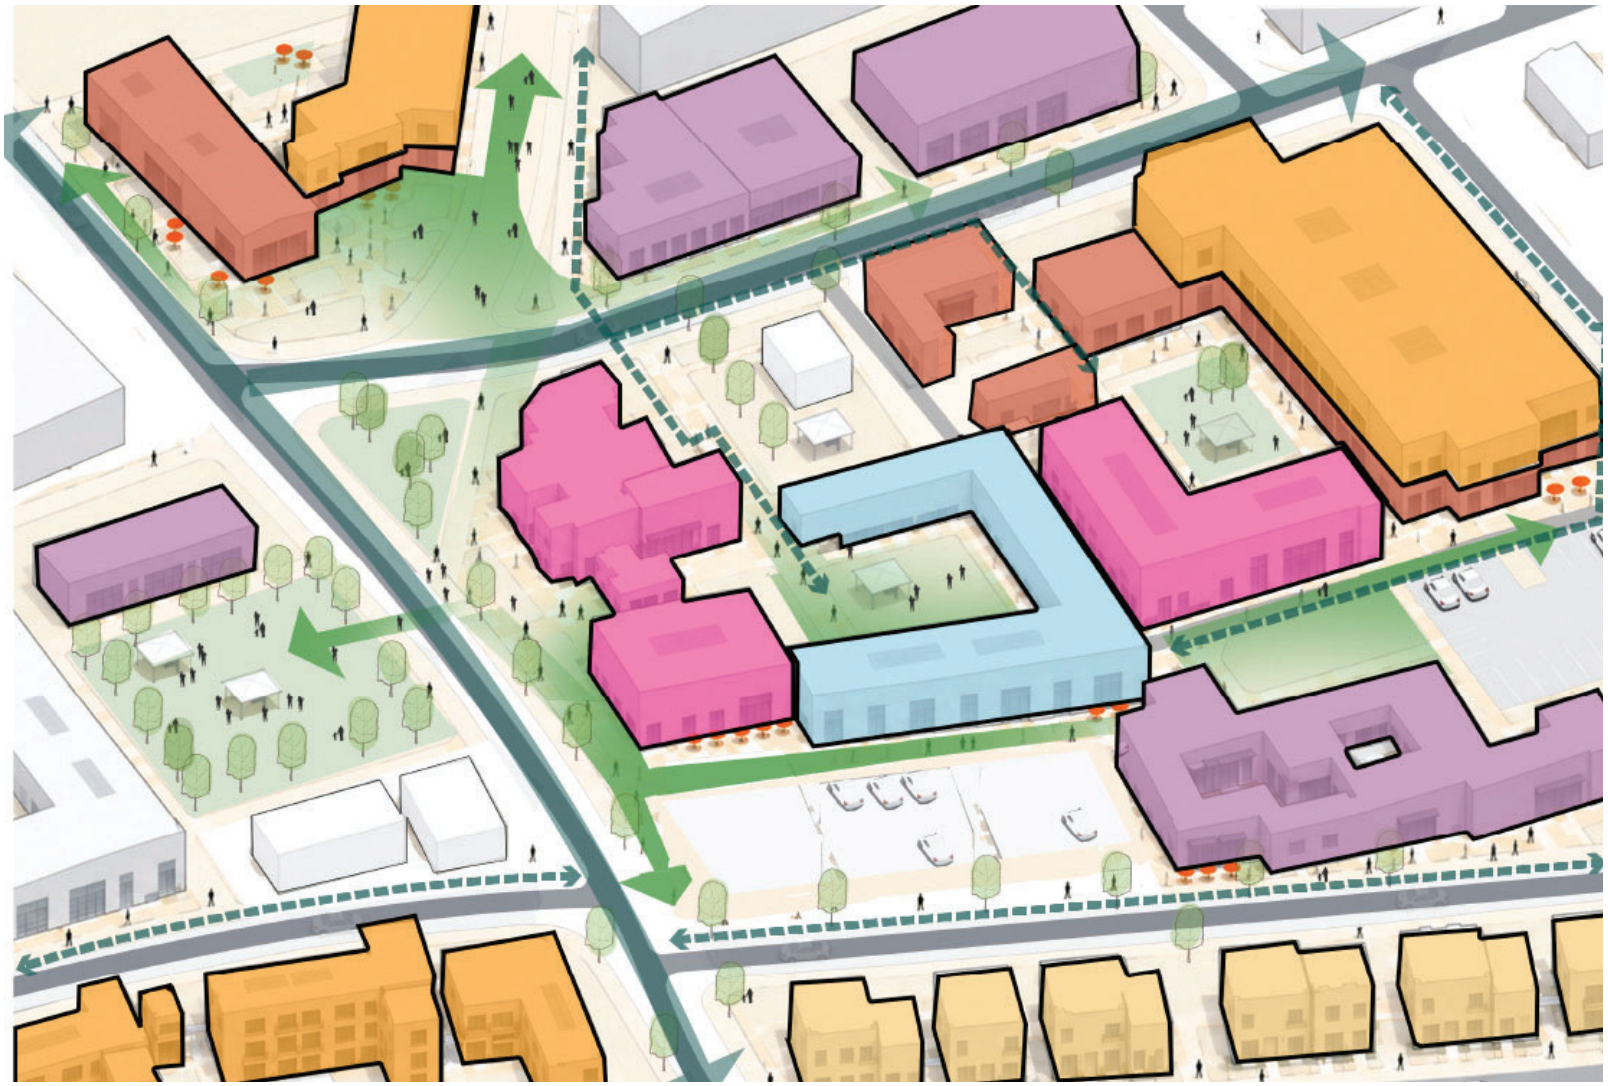

Plaza as the space for gathering and celebration

Public spaces tell Santa Fe's layered histories

DISTRICTS: ARTS AND CULTURE DISTRICT

"Places that support creative producers, cultural expression, galleries, performance spaces, events, and the everyday presence of arts in community life."

Flex spaces as workshops and outlets for creative pursuits

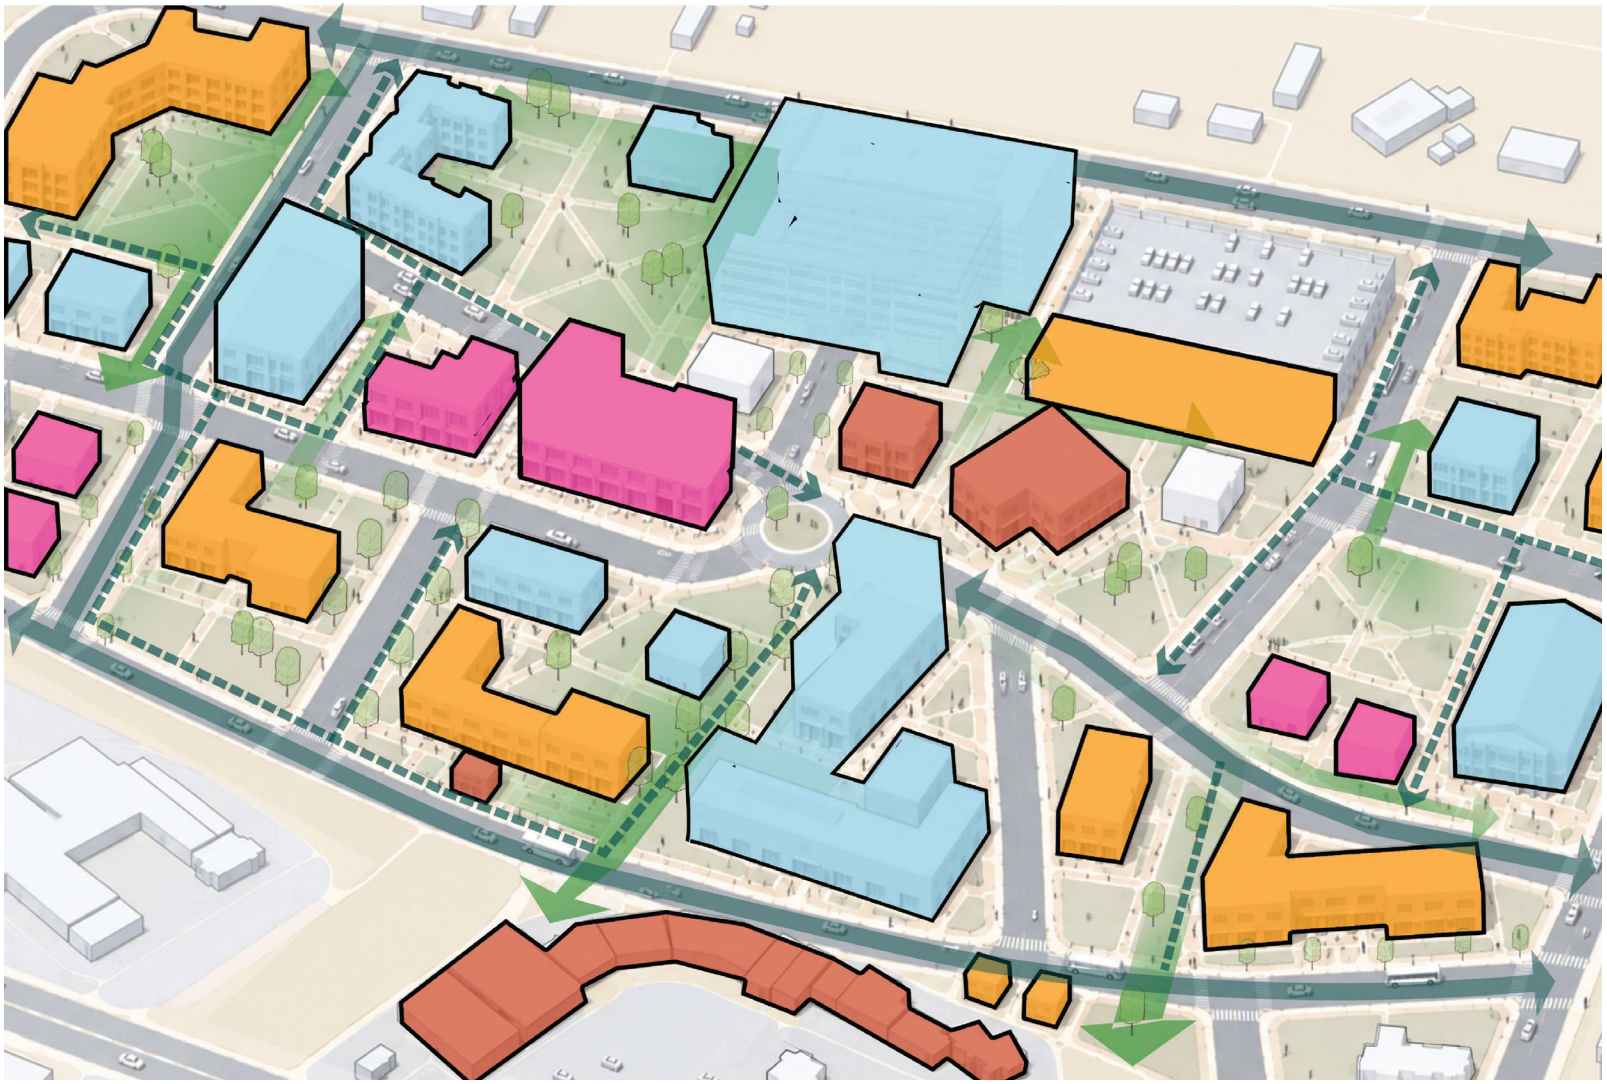

Pop-up markets and informal gallery spaces

Adaptable spaces for different art and media processes

DISTRICTS: FAMILY AND WELLNESS DISTRICT

"Areas that concentrate services, educational campuses, regional community centers, health, and family-supporting amenities that strengthen quality of life across generations."

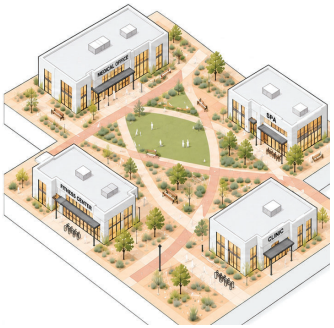

Families of all ages play, learn, and stay healthy together

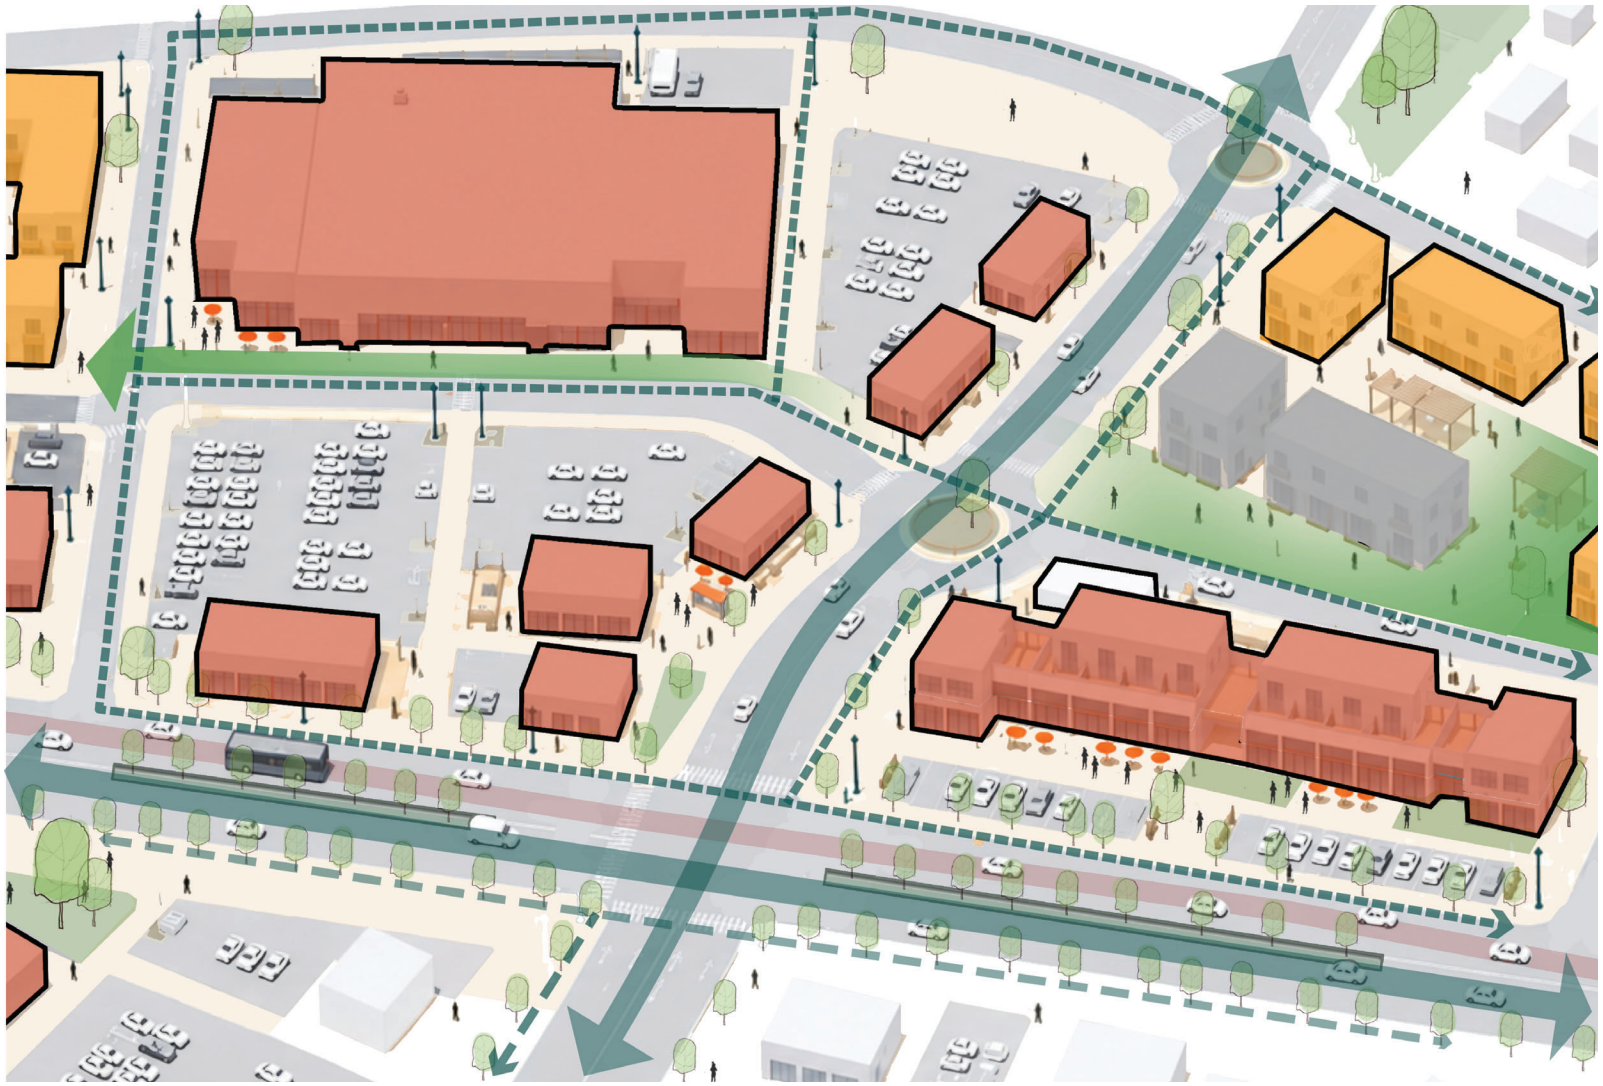

Clinics, childcare and senior centers serve neighborhoods

Wellness and care infrastructure supported by open spaces

DESTINATIONS: COMMERCE CORRIDOR

"Major corridors that support citywide and regional travel, business activity, goods movement, and provide access to everyone to employment, retail, multifamily housing, and services."

Primary Vehicular Circulation

Bike Lane and Sidewalk Connection

Common Space

Existing Development

Multifamily Residential Infill

Residential Infill

Commercial

Regionally and locally serving commercial node

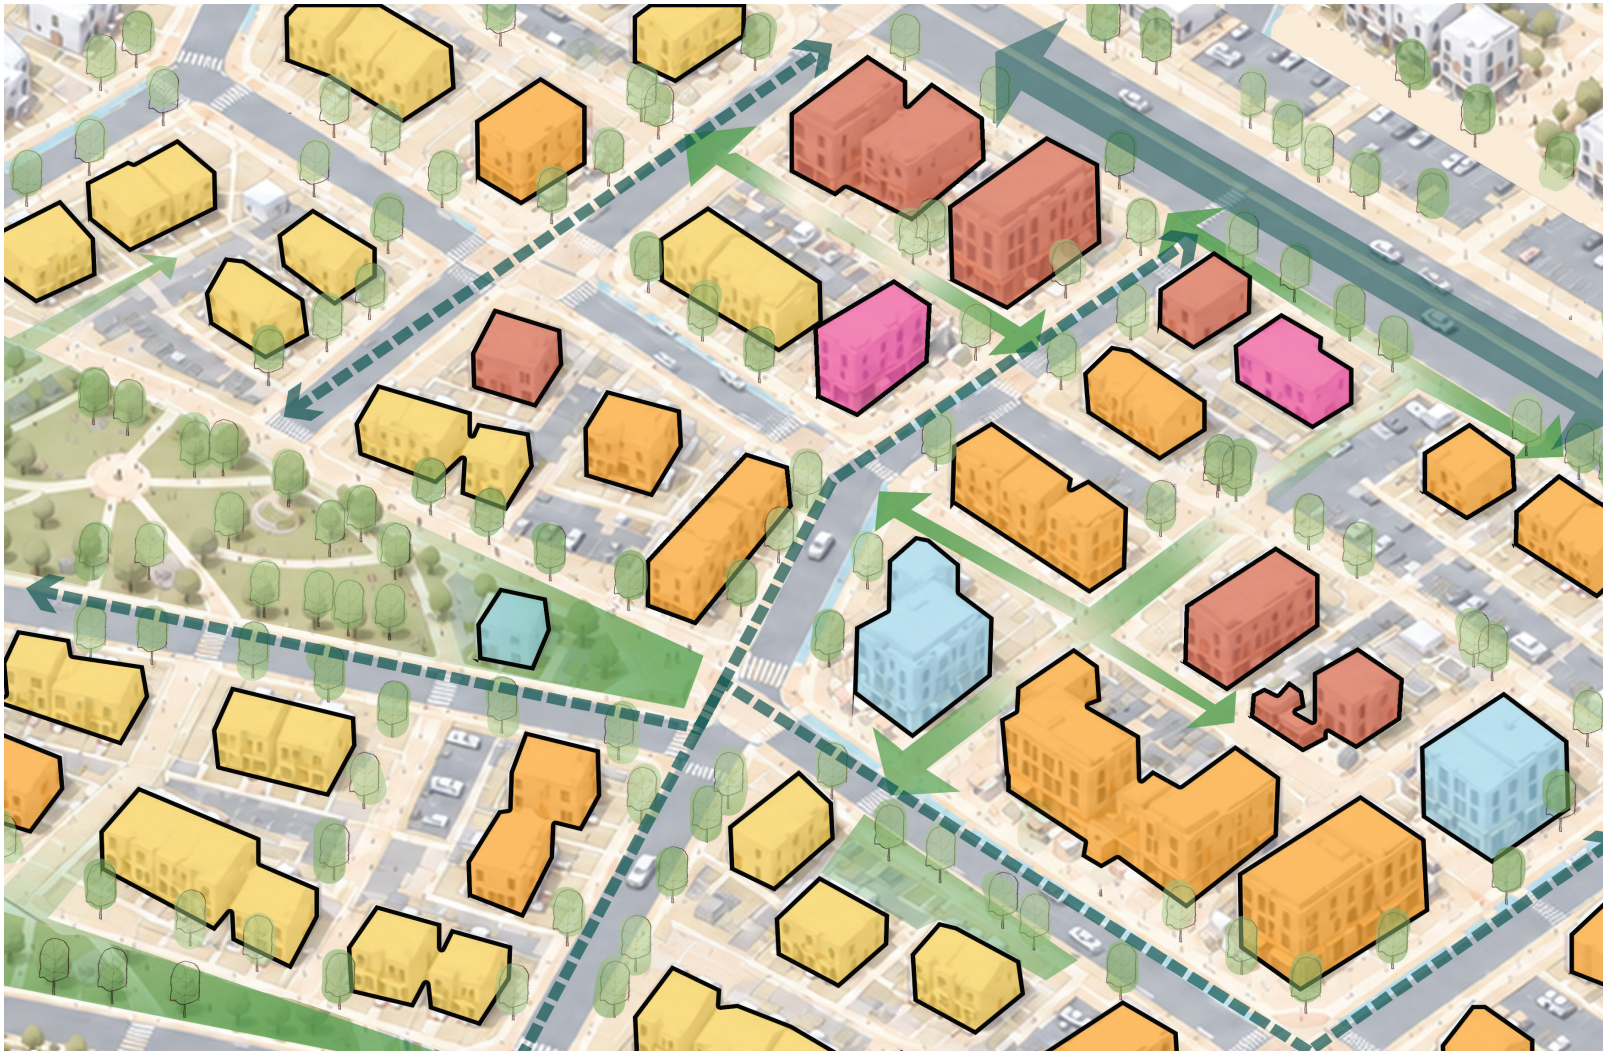

Major Corridor with dedicated transit infrastructure

Thoroughfare with branding and corridor elements

DESTINATIONS: COMMUNITY HUB

"Community-serving destinations that encourage a creative mix of housing, services, employment, institutions, and gathering spaces while reflecting the distinctive character of surrounding neighborhoods or becoming distinctive destinations themselves."

Bike lanes and pedestrian pathways supporting overall connectivity

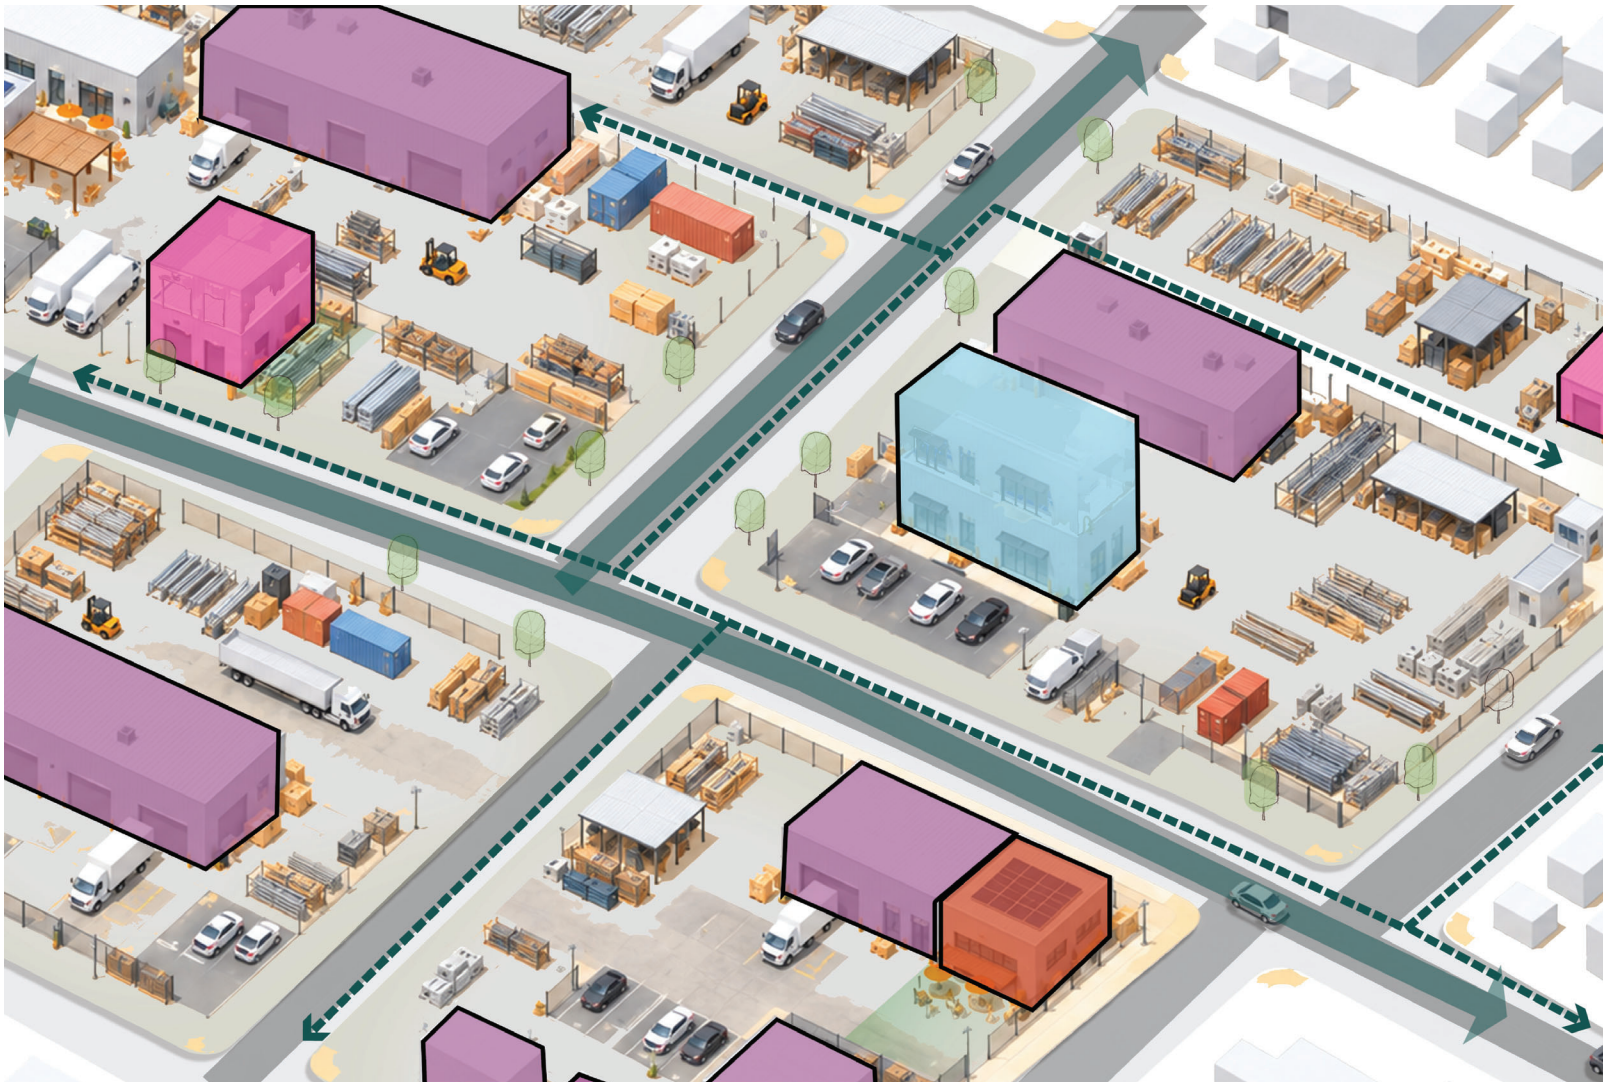

Mixed-use neighborhood gathering spaces

Neighborhood serving amenities within walking distance

ECONOMIC ENGINES: MAKERS AND SERVICES ENGINE

"Employment areas that support local business growth, entrepreneurship, creative production, trades, government services and innovation."

Primary Vehicular Circulation
Bike Lane and Sidewalk Connection
Common Space
Existing Development
Multifamily Residential Infill
Residential Infill
Commercial
Mixed-Use
Industrial
Civic/Institutional

Flexible spaces to collaborate and innovate

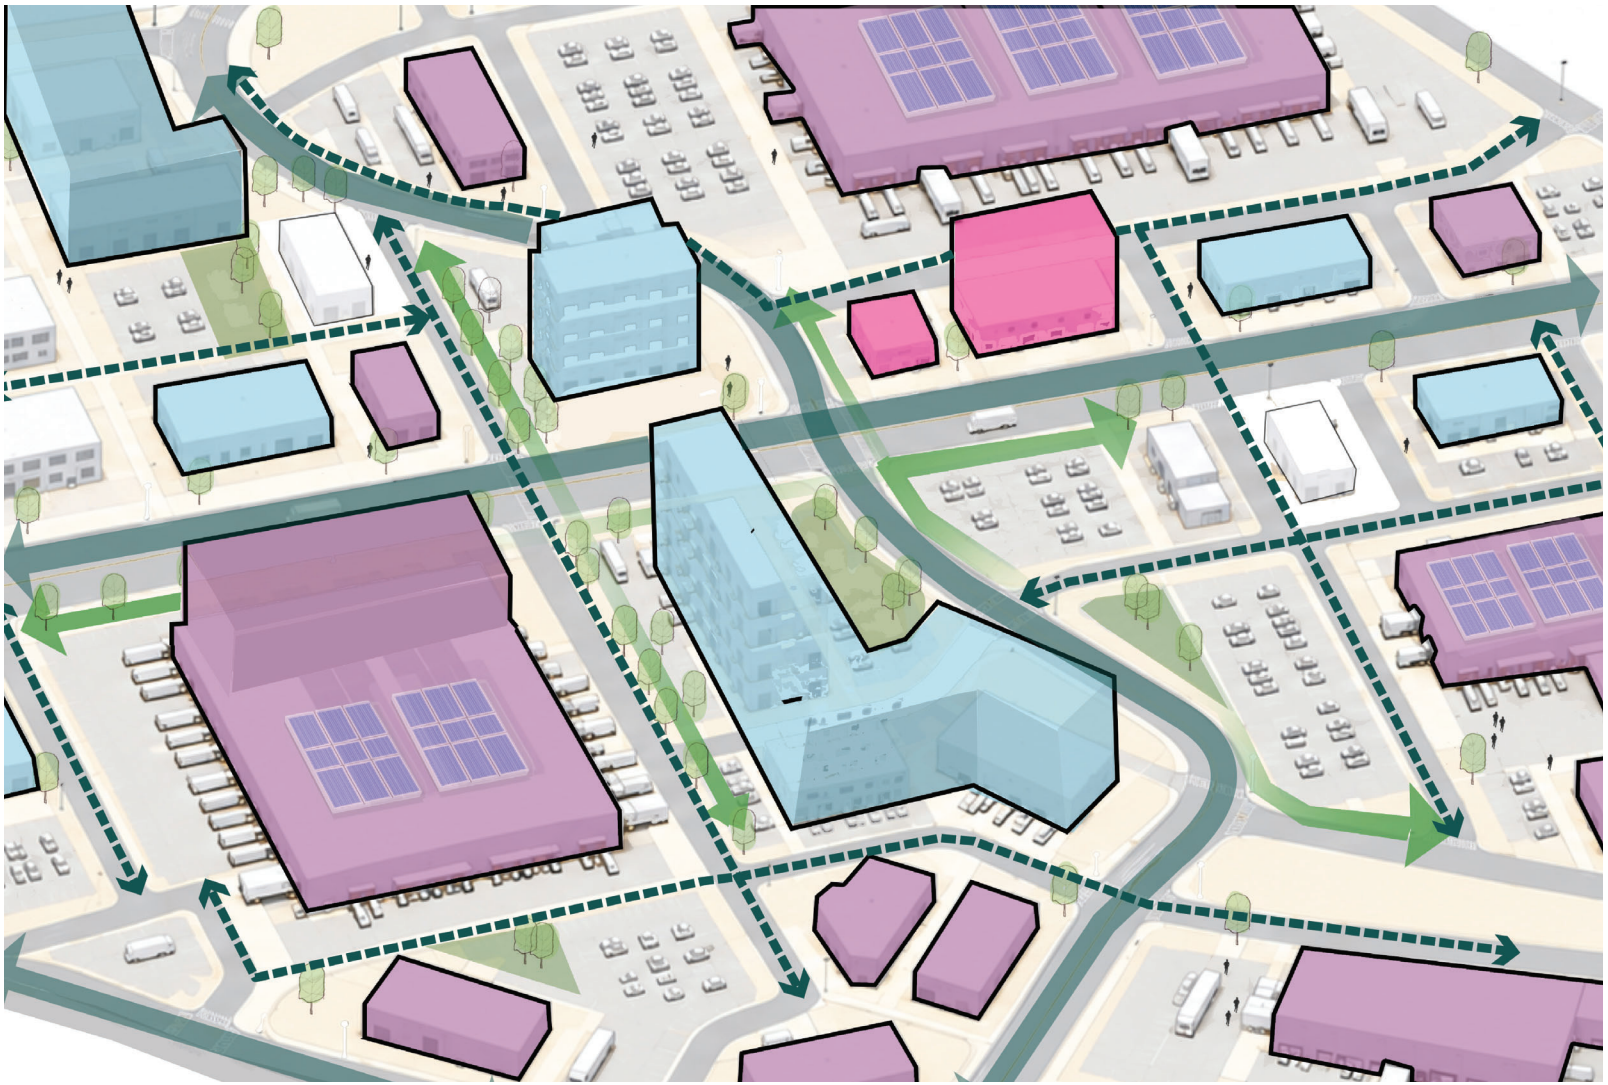

Office spaces to support manufacturing and production

Live-work typology to activate area throughout

ECONOMIC ENGINES: PRODUCTION AND LOGISTICS ENGINE

"Areas suited for large employment, innovation, production, fabrication, warehousing, distribution, utilities, and essential operational functions that support the city and region."

Essential operations keep the city moving

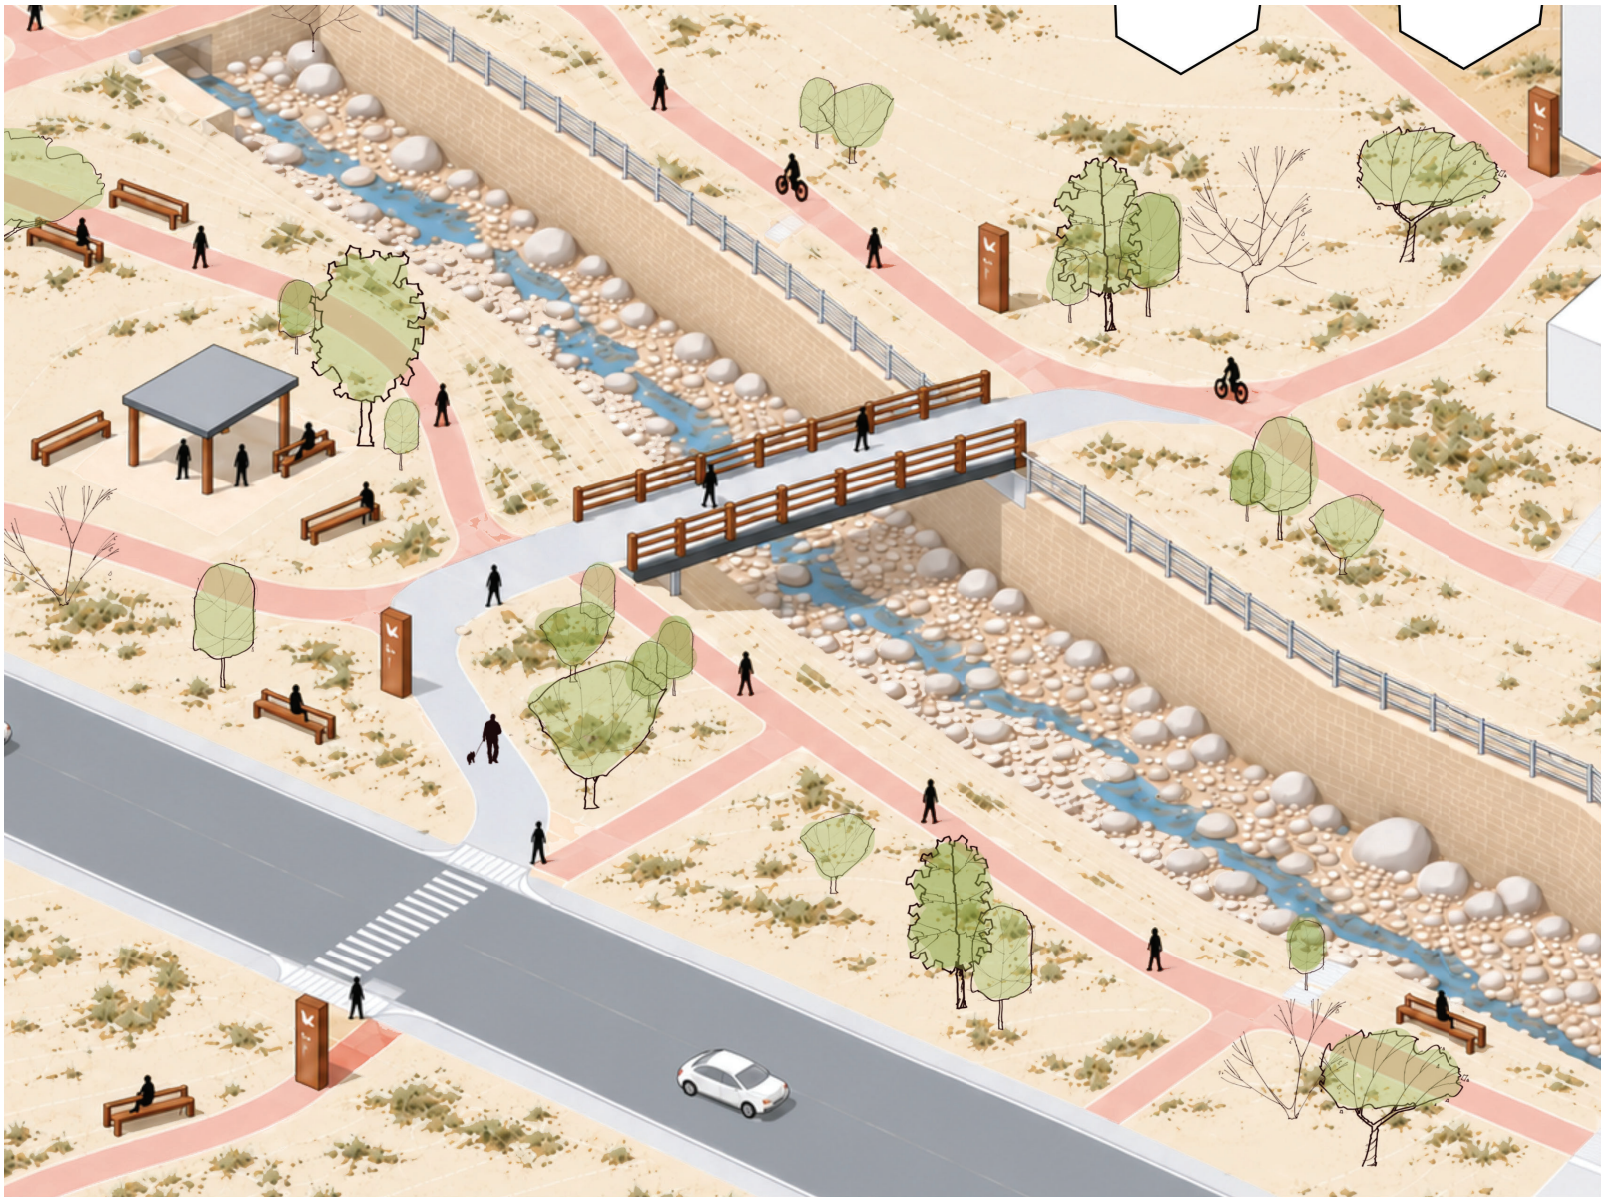

Strengthening the manufacturing and engineering sectors

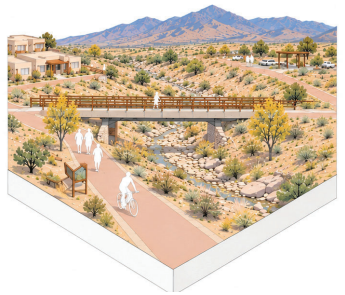

Research and development that brings in high-paying jobs

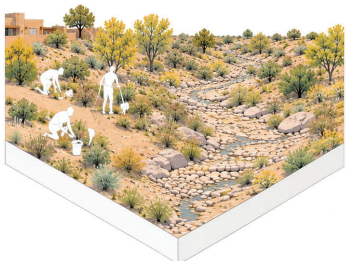

LANDSCAPES: LIVING LINK LANDSCAPE

"Connected open spaces, trails, arroyos, and natural corridors that support active travel, ecological needs, climate resilience, and access to the outdoors."

Trails along the arroyos to support active uses

Ecological maintenance in and around the arroyos

Bridges and trails as connectors to surrounding uses

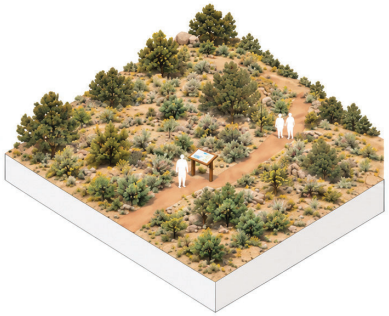

LANDSCAPES: CONSERVATION VISTA LANDSCAPE

"Landscape areas defined by natural beauty, viewsheds, habitat preservation, natural slopes, and environmental value where conservation, stewardship, low-impact access, and hazard mitigation are emphasized."

Easy trail access from neighborhoods to enjoy outdoors

Wayfinding and signage to support trail usage

Viewpoints to enjoy vistas